Chinatown Service Center

華埠服務中心

MISSION

To provide outstanding services and advocacy that promotes a better quality of life and equal opportunity to immigrants and other communities.

ABOUT US

Founded in 1971, Chinatown Service Center (CSC) is the oldest and largest community health and social service organization serving the Greater Los Angeles Chinese American community. Today, CSC has expanded our services and outreach to provide a variety of services to the underserved and disadvantaged immigrants and minorities in Southern California for the betterment of their quality of life.

Chinatown Service Center is proud to offer our services and assistance in English along with a variety of languages reflective of our diverse community: Cantonese, Mandarin, Toisan, Chiu Chow, Vietnamese, Japanese, and Spanish.

SOCIAL SERVICES

Safety-Net

In-language health care form enrollment assistance. Social service and citizenship assistance referrals.

Support for Seniors

In-home case management service delivered to the senior's home to promote and maintain their ability to live independently in their communities. Registry and respite services to match seniors with trained in-home providers to assist with supervision, house chores and personal care.

Family Caregiver

Offer assistance and support to family caregivers through assessment, counseling, in-home case management, support group, training, registry, and respite services.

Volunteer Income Tax Assistance

Since 1982, CSC has been providing free tax assistance to low-income taxpayers in Los Angeles. From just 2012 to 2015 alone, CSC has helped return over $2 million to taxpayers.
